MEMBER'S FULL NAME (PLEASE PRINT)		CURRENT EMPLOYER
SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER	BIRTH DATE	TELEPHONE NUMBER

I understand that if I am married but do not name my spouse as beneficiary, she/he may still be entitled to a community property share of my 'Lump Sum Contributions' or a share of any monthly allowance that may be payable. My 'Non-Spouse Designated' beneficiaries will receive the portion of my lump sum benefits, which are not payable to my spouse as his/her community property share. I further understand that if my death is determined to be 'Industrial,' special death benefits will be paid in the manner prescribed by law. If no percentage (%) is given, the applicable benefits will be paid SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR CalPERS BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION FORM

If you die before you retire, the Public Employees' Retirement Law provides for payment of specific Death Benefits to your surviving beneficiaries. Please see your personnel officer for a description of the benefits. The benefits are payable to the following beneficiaries:

- A. If you are a safety member and your death is job-related, or if you are not a safety member but you are fatally attacked while performing your official job duties, the Special Death Benefit may be payable. This benefit is payable by law to your surviving spouse (whether or not you were still living together at the time of your death) or, if none, to your unmarried children under age 22, whether or not you have filed a beneficiary designation.
- B. If you are eligible for retirement or you are a State member with at least 20 years of State service credit, a monthly death benefit allowance may be payable. If you do not have a valid beneficiary designation on file, the benefits will be payable to your surviving spouse to whom you have been married to for either one year or prior to the onset of the injury or illness that resulted in death. Or, if there is no eligible surviving spouse, the allowance will be payable to your unmarried minor children, if any.

If you do have a valid beneficiary designation on file your spouse may still be entitled to a community property share of your lump sum contributions or monthly death benefit allowance. However, your non-spouse designated beneficiaries will receive the portion of your lump sum benefits which are not payable to your spouse as his/her community property share.

- C. If A and B do not apply and there is no valid Beneficiary Designation on file at the time of death, the benefits will be payable to your survivors in the following order:
  - 1. Your surviving spouse (whether or not you were still living together at the time of your death); or, if none
  - 2. Natural and adopted children, including (in limited situations) a natural child adopted by another, share and share alike; or, if none,
  - 3. Parents, share and share alike; or if none,
  - 4. Brothers and sisters, share and share alike, or if none,
  - 5. Your estate (if probated, or subject to probate), or if not,
  - 6. Your trust (if one exists), or if not,
  - 7. Stepchildren, share and share alike, or, if none,
  - 8. Grandchildren, including step-grandchildren, share and share alike, or, if none,
  - 9. Nieces and nephews, share and share alike, or, if none,
  - 10. Great-grandchildren, share and share alike, or, if none,
  - 11. Cousins, share and share alike.

If A and B do not apply and there is a valid Beneficiary Designation on file at the time of death, the benefits will be payable to the beneficiary(ies) you designate on the form. However, if you are married at the time of death, your spouse may still be entitled to a community property share of your lump sum contributions.

- D. You may designate or change your beneficiaries at any time by completing another Beneficiary Designation form. You may name as beneficiary any person or persons, a corporation or your estate. Payment will be made to your estate only if probated. You may designate a trust as your beneficiary; however, you must provide the name of the trust, the date of the trust, and the name and address where the trust is filed. It is not necessary to provide the name of the trustee. Reminder: If you are married at the time of your death and you do not name your spouse as beneficiary, he/she may still be entitled to a community property share of your lump sum contributions or a share of any monthly allowance that may be payable.
- E. Your Beneficiary Designation will be revoked automatically, and benefits will be payable to the closest survivor listed in section C, if any of the following events occur after your designation form is received by CalPERS:
  - 1. Marriage; or
  - 2. Dissolution or annulment of your marriage if initiated after the beneficiary designation form was submitted; or
  - 3. Birth or adoption of a child; or
  - 4. Termination of employment that results in a refund of your contributions.

INSTRUCTIONS
See Reverse Side of This Page

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Print clearly with ball point pen or type all information requested. If you make an error, make the necessary correction by lining through the error and initialing the change. No erasures or correction fluid will be accepted.
2. Enter on the form the full name of your beneficiaries, relationship, social security number (if known), and the complete address for each. (If the form does not provide enough space, you may attach additional sheets provided you indicate whether you are designating “primary” or “secondary” beneficiaries. You must sign, date, and write your social security number at the top of each additional sheet.)
3. If a (%) is entered make sure the total equals 100%.
4. Your spouse must sign the form to acknowledge the names of the beneficiaries you are designating. IMPORTANT: If you are unable to obtain your spouse’s signature, you MUST complete the BSD-800, “Justification for Non-Signature of Spouse” form, on the reverse side of the designation form or your designation form may be rejected.
5. Enter the date you signed the form and your current mailing address.
6. Mail the completed form to the Public Employees’ Retirement System at the address shown, or you may fax it to (916) 326-3933.
7. After CalPERS receives and reviews the form a confirmation letter will be mailed to you within 6 weeks. If the form is not acceptable a new form will be mailed to you to complete.
